

MEET OUR NEW TEAM MEMBERS

Joy Hansen

Youth Services Clerk

Joy was born and raised in Harlan. After she graduated high school, she attended Full Sail University in Florida and earned her bachelor's in film. Late 2021, Joy moved back to Harlan after college to be close to family; soon after the move she joined the library team. She enjoys creating art, writing, roller skating, and movie making. Currently her favorite genre to read is horror.

Ben Ewert

Circulation Clerk

Ben joined the library team in late 2021. He moved to Harlan in the summer of 2002 after graduating with a history degree from Elmhurst University. Ben then went on to teach English overseas in Thailand and China for 4 years. He is currently working on a post baccalaureate secondary education teaching degree at Buena Vista University. Among his many interests are reading, learning different languages and different cultures, playing guitar, and watching sports.
